

Faculty Development Programme – PRERANA

Date -24-03-25

Venue – Kuvempu Hall

The Faculty Development Programme titled PRERANA – Journey from Teachers to Guru was conducted by IQAC to inspire and equip educators with the skills and mindset required to transition from teachers to mentors. This initiative aimed to enhance the quality of education by fostering a deeper connection between educators and students.

The program featured Smt. Rekha Ramachandran, Founder and Trustee of Disha Bharath, Bangalore, as the distinguished resource person.

- She shared her insights on the transformation of teachers into mentors, emphasizing
- The importance of value-based education.
- The role of teachers in shaping character and leadership in students.
- The significance of lifelong learning and continuous self-improvement for educators.

The Faculty Development Program, PRERANA, successfully provided a platform for educators to reflect on their teaching approaches and embrace the role of a guru in students' lives. The event concluded with an engaging interaction, leaving participants with a renewed sense of purpose and commitment towards holistic education.
