OFFICE ORDER

Subject: ALVA'S PARAKH – Institutional Implementation of AICTE PARAKH (Student Gap Analysis Initiative)

In pursuance of the guidelines issued by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) under the Approval Process Handbook (APH) 2024–27, and with a view to strengthening student learning outcomes through gap analysis and continuous academic improvement, the Institution hereby resolves to implement the ALVAS PARAKH (Student Gap Analysis Portal Based Services) with immediate effect.

Objectives

The Institution shall implement ALVAS PARAKH with the following objectives:

1. To identify learning gaps and competency levels of students.
2. To facilitate evidence-based academic planning and improvement.
3. To strengthen Outcome-Based Education (OBE) and Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE).
4. To improve students' academic performance through remedial measures and mentoring.
5. To promote continuous monitoring of student learning and skill development.

Implementation

The Institution shall:

1. Register and utilize the ALVAS PARAKH platform, as applicable.
2. Nominate a PARAKH Coordinator to oversee implementation and coordination.
3. Encourage faculty members and students to participate in PARAKH-related activities.
4. Analyze student learning gaps identified through the portal and implement suitable academic interventions.
5. Conduct mentoring, remedial classes and skill development programmes based on the identified learning needs.
6. Maintain records of implementation, participation, reports, and improvement measures for institutional review and regulatory compliance.

Monitoring

The implementation of ALVAS PARAKH shall be monitored by the Principal, IQAC, Heads of Departments, and the PARAKH Coordinator. A review of implementation and outcomes shall be carried out periodically, and corrective measures shall be taken wherever necessary.

This Office Order shall come into force with immediate effect.
